Subject: Blue Spike -- Asserted Claims

Counsel,

In its report on infringement, Blue Spike dropped some of its claims against Audible Magic (i.e. Dr. Tewfik did not present infringement theories for all of Blue Spike's previously elected claims). Please confirm whether Blue Spike is similarly dropping those claims against Audible Magic's customers. If those claims are no longer in dispute, then there is no need for Audible Magic to present non-infringement theories on them. However, if Blue Spike intends to still raise those claims against Audible Magic's customers then Audible Magic will include those claims in its non-infringement report.

Please advise by close of business Wednesday.
